

Conversation Generation - Teens & Parents Talking about Health Issues

Author(s) Unknown

TR4Y Resource WE-00576

Provides some essential facts all parents and teens ought to know about, and how to talk about them. Includes: Adolescent Sexual Behavior; Contraception; Healthy Relationships; HIV/AIDS; Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender; Questioning Youth; Physical Health; Puberty; Sexually Transmitted Diseases; Teen Pregnancy Prevention Also provides links to other topics such as: School Successes and Challenges; Peer Relationships; Positive Values; Online Safety; Bullying and Violence; Money; Alcohol; Tobacco; & Illegal drugs

Resource dated January 1, 2011

<http://www.hhs.gov/ash/oah/resources-and-publications/info/parents/>

Classroom practice/strategy details: provides guidance that can be shared with parents

Level of evidence: Unestablished Practice

NSTTAC Predictor Categories:

- Transition Programming (Unestablished Practice)
- Family Engagement (Unestablished Practice)
- Student Support (Unestablished Practice)
- Social Skills (Unestablished Practice)
- Independent Living Skills (Unestablished Practice)
- Self-Advocacy / Self-Determination (Unestablished Practice)

Kohler Taxonomy:

- Student Focused Planning
- Family Involvement
- Student Development

Indicator 13 and Other Legal Transition Requirements:

- Student needs, strengths, preferences and interests (Unestablished Practice)
- Courses of study (Unestablished Practice)

ADULT SUPPORTED/INDEPENDENT LIVING Outcome possibly addressed by this resource.

User types:

- Teacher/Educator/Transition Specialist
- Parent/Family/Guardian

Education Professional Standards:

- Pupil Services Standard P6 (Implement strategies to address wide range of social, emotional, behavioral and physical issues that can limit positive student outcomes)
- Pupil Services Standard P2 (Know strategies that support students learning, health, safety, development)